

TOP 10 OLYMPIC EVENTS THAT REMIND US OF THE OBAMA ECONOMY

#3: Synchronized Swimming

Floods of duplicative
government
programs cost
taxpayers billions.

Swimmers doing the same thing are cool, but agencies?
Not so much.

The Government Accountability Office found that overlapping and wasteful agency programs cost taxpayers tens of billions of dollars.

The GAO report identified 37 areas of fragmentation, overlap, and duplication within agencies of the Obama Administration.
