

TOP 10 OLYMPIC EVENTS THAT REMIND US OF THE OBAMA ECONOMY

#5: High Jump

Americans face a high jump in Obamacare premiums next year.

In spite of the President’s promise that his reform would slash health insurance costs, the 2017 national average rate hike requested by insurers in Obamacare exchanges is 23.3%.

Jump in Premiums since 2013 in Selected States

STATE	ESTIMATED INCREASE, 2013 - 2017
OHIO	80.6%
INDIANA	71.5%
NORTH CAROLINA	69.0%
FLORIDA	48.9%
OREGON	48.6%
PENNSYLVANIA	40.2%

Source: Society of Actuaries, Dept. of Health and Human Services, Indiana and Ohio Departments of Insurance, ACASignups.net.
 Note: 2017 estimates apply the weighted average of requested or approved rate increases for each state to the 2016 premiums.