BENNETT TO HOST HEARING ON THE “ECONOMIC REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT”

Washington, DC—Robert Bennett (R-UT), Chairman of the Joint Economic Committee, has invited members of the President’s Council of Economic Advisors to testify on The Economic Report of the President, which will be released early next week. The hearing will be held on Tuesday, February 10, 2004 at 2:30 p.m. in 628 Dirksen.

The Joint Economic Committee (JEC) and Council of Economic Advisors (CEA) were each created by the Employment Act of 1946. The Act explicitly mandated that the Council of Economic Advisors is to issue an Economic Report every year and officially present it to the Congress, and the Joint Economic Committee in return is to issue a response to the report.
